

Make a headline (adjective plus a noun)

WONDERFUL WALES

Image

What can you zoom in on? Look at that one aspect and describe it

The top of the mountain was miles away. It was sharp and pointy looking...

- Where are you?
- What is it like there?
- Who are you with?
- Why are you there?

Wales is one of the most beautiful countries in the world. With its rolling hills, glistening lakes and golden sand beaches it has something for everyone. Today, I'm going to explore its most famous mountain...Snowdon or Yr Wyddfa to give it its real name.

What can you use your macro lens on? The smallest thing.

At the top of the mountain I saw a small black ant...

What is the big picture? Look at the whole scene you are describing and write about it all

The mountain sits in a huge, peaceful valley. I walk down past the glistening and glimmering waters of Llyn Cwellyn and begin my trek along the slate covered path up the side of the mountain. It is huge and towers above me like a monster or a dinosaur; I can safely say it is going to be a hard and rocky road to the top.

My opinion

Overall, I've had a lovely trip to Snowdonia. Yes the climb was hard and gruelling. I dropped my lunch on the way up and my feet are covered in blisters but...